FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

OKALOOSA COUNTY SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS TO PHASE REOPENING OF OFFICE LOBBIES

April 30, 2020 – Crestview, FL – The Okaloosa County Supervisor of Elections, Paul Lux, has announced a phased reopening of his offices to the public, following closures due to the novel Coronavirus COVID-19. Beginning Monday, May 4, 2020, the Crestview Elections Headquarters will be re-opened to the public for normal business hours, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm. The Shalimar office will be reopened soon, and will be announced via the Supervisor of Election's website and Facebook page. The Shalimar location will still have a secured lockbox for those who wish to drop off registration applications, Vote-by-Mail requests, etc., located immediately outside of the office door. More information can be found at www.voteokaloosa.gov.
